ORDER DISMISSING APPEAL

This is an appeal from an order of the district court indicating the court's inclination to grant a motion filed by respondents to correct a clerical error in the judgment, which is already on appeal in this court in Steele v. U.S. National Bank, Docket No. 67241. Appellant is proceeding in pro se pursuant to this court's pilot program for civil litigants proceeding in pro se.

Our review of the documents before this court reveals a jurisdictional defect. Specifically, it appears that the judgment or order designated in the notice of appeal is not substantively appealable. This court has jurisdiction to consider an appeal only when the appeal is authorized by statute or court rule. See NRPA 3A(b); Taylor Constr. Co. v. Hilton Hotels, 100 Nev. 207, 678 P.2d 1152 (1984). No statute or court rule provides for an appeal from an order indicating the district court's inclination to enter an amended judgment to correct a clerical error.

Accordingly, we conclude that we lack jurisdiction and we dismiss this appeal.

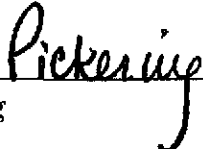

It is so ORDERED.¹
