DEPUTY CLERK

ORDER DISMISSING PETITION

This pro se petition for a writ of quo warranto was docketed in this court without payment of the requisite filing fee. A deficiency notice issued the day the writ was filed directing petitioner to pay the filing fee within ten days or the petition would be dismissed. Petitioner did not tender the fee as directed; instead, he submitted a document in which he appears to claim that this is a criminal matter not subject to a filing fee.¹ Petitioner is incorrect. The petition challenges the authority of the district court judge to hold public office, which is civil in nature. Accordingly, this petition is dismissed.

¹The clerk of this court is directed to file the document received September 10, 2013, entitled "Judicial Notice: Clerk's Obstruction of Justice; Conspiracy to Deny Access to This Court, By and Through the Deliberate Misapplication of Supreme Court Rule 2.250(i)(A)."

It is so ORDERED.
