ORDER DENYING PETITION FOR WRIT OF MANDAMUS

This original petition for a writ of mandamus or prohibition challenges an order of the district court that granted real party in interest's motion to quash service of process.¹ We have considered this petition, and we are not satisfied that this court's intervention by way of extraordinary relief is warranted at this time. Accordingly, we deny the petition. See NRAP 21(b); State ex rel. Dep't Transp. v. Thompson, 99 Nev. 358, 662 P.2d 1338 (1983).

It is so ORDERED.

¹Although styled as a petition seeking alternative writs of mandamus or prohibition, this court has previously explained that a petition for a writ of mandamus is the appropriate way to seek relief from a district court order granting a motion to quash. Firouzabadi v. District Court,
