ORDER DENYING PETITION

This is a pro se petition for a writ of mandamus challenging an order of the district court denying a motion for transcripts. Based on the documents provided by petitioner, this court concluded that his motion appeared to set forth a specific issue of arguable merit regarding his sentencing hearing and that he had no plain, speedy, and adequate remedy in the ordinary course of law and directed respondent to answer why the writ should not be issued. Sigal v. Eighth Judicial Dist. Court, Docket No. 68031 (Order Directing Answer, September 14, 2015). Respondent has provided documentation that the district court has granted a motion to produce the sentencing hearing transcripts at state expense. Accordingly, petitioner's request is moot, and we

ORDER the petition DENIED.
