ORDER DISMISSING APPEALS

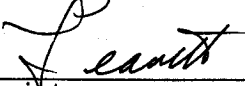

These are proper person appeals from orders of the district court denying appellant's motions for transcripts at public expense and motions for finding of contempt. Our review of these appeals reveals a jurisdictional defect. The right to appeal is statutory; where no statute or court rule provides for an appeal, no right to appeal exists. Castillo v. State, 106 Nev. 349, 792 P.2d 1133 (1990). No statute or court rule provides for an appeal from an order of the district court denying a motion for transcripts or an order denying a motion for finding of contempt. Accordingly, we

ORDER these appeals dismissed.
