ORDER GRANTING MOTION AND DISMISSING APPEAL

This is an appeal from a district court order denying a motion to dismiss. Respondents have filed a motion to dismiss the appeal for lack of jurisdiction, appellants have opposed the motion, and respondents have filed a reply.

Cause appearing, the motion is granted. No statute or court rule authorizes an appeal from an order denying a motion to dismiss. See NRAP 3A(b) (listing orders and judgments from which an appeal may be taken); see also Taylor Constr. Co. v. Hilton Hotels Corp., 100 Nev. 207,

209, 678 P.2d 1152, 1153 (1984). Because the challenged order is not substantively appealable we lack jurisdiction over this appeal and we

ORDER this appeal DISMISSED.¹

¹Appellants' alternative request that this appeal be converted to a writ of mandamus is denied. If appellants believe that filing a writ petition is a proper course of action, then they may do so. Additionally, respondents' request for sanctions and attorney fees and costs is denied.
