CLERK OF SUPREME COURT

DEPUTY CLERK

ORDER DENYING PETITION

This is a petition for a writ of certiorari challenging a misdemeanor conviction arising from the justice court. Petitioner Paul Kaylor argues that the district court erred in affirming his misdemeanor conviction because there was insufficient evidence he violated the ordinance, the statutory obligations of innkeepers were ignored, and the county code was unconstitutionally vague and violated his due process rights. We decline to exercise our jurisdiction to consider this petition because Kaylor did not challenge the constitutionality or the validity of the ordinance in the district court and because his claims do not implicate the jurisdiction of the lower courts. See NRS 34.020; Zamarripa v. First

Judicial Dist. Court, 103 Nev. 638, 640, 747 P.2d 1386, 1387 (1987) ("A writ of certiorari is an extraordinary remedy and the decision to entertain a petition for a writ of certiorari lies within the discretion of this court."). Accordingly, we

ORDER the petition DENIED.
