ORDER OF AFFIRMANCE

Appellant Anthony Terrell Hampton appeals from a district court order denying the motion to correct an unlawful sentence he filed on April 29, 2016.<sup>1</sup> Eighth Judicial District Court, Clark County; Michael Villani, Judge.

Hampton claims his sentence is unlawful because the district court did not review and make particularized findings that it was fair and just to adjudicate him a habitual criminal. However, a motion to correct an illegal sentence may address only the facial legality of the sentence—either the district court was without jurisdiction to impose a sentence or the sentence was imposed in excess of the statutory maximum. Edwards v. State, 112 Nev. 704, 708, 918 P.2d 321, 324 (1996). Because Hampton's claim fell outside the narrow scope of claims permissible in a motion to
