CLERK OF SUPREME COURT

DEPUTY CLERK

ORDER DISMISSING APPEAL

This is purportedly an appeal from a district court order that, in part, denied appellant's motion for preliminary injunction. However, it appears the district court has not yet entered a written order resolving appellant's motion for preliminary injunction. A district court's minute order is ineffective for any purpose and cannot be appealed, and a written order or judgment must be filed before a district court ruling can be appealed. See Rust v. Clark Cnty. School District, 103 Nev. 686, 747 P.2d 1380 (1987). Accordingly, we conclude that we lack jurisdiction over this appeal, and we

ORDER this appeal DISMISSED.¹

¹We grant appellant's motion to file a motion for injunction that exceeds the page limit and direct the clerk to file the "emergency" motion received on May 23, 2017. In light of this order, we deny the motion for injunction as moot.
