DEPUTY CLERK

ORDER DENYING PETITION FOR A WRIT OF MANDAMUS

This original petition for a writ of mandamus challenges a district court order granting a petition for judicial review and remanding the matter to the State Board of Equalization. Having considered the petition and appendix filed in this matter, we are not persuaded that our extraordinary and discretionary intervention is warranted. Pan v. Eighth Judicial Dist. Court, 120 Nev. 222, 228, 88 P.3d 840, 844 (2004); Smith v. Eighth Judicial Dist. Court, 107 Nev. 674, 677, 818 P.2d 849, 851 (1991); see NRAP 21(b)(1). Accordingly, we

17-28537

ORDER the petition DENIED.¹

¹In light of this denial, petitioners' emergency motion for stay is denied as moot. Additionally, Ellen Bakst, Jane Barnhart, Carol Buck, Daniel Schwartz, Larry Watkins, Don Wilson, Patricia Wilson, and Agnieszka Winkler (Bakst Intervenors) have submitted documents purporting to join in this petition, serve notice (and amended notice) of such joinder, and join in the emergency motion. To the extent the Bakst Intervenors advance additional arguments and seek relief different than that sought by petitioners, it appears such arguments and requests are not appropriately the subject of a joinder, and the Bakst Intervenors should have filed a separate proceeding, along with the required filing fee. See NRS 2.250; NRAP 21(e). Thus, we direct the clerk to return the documents submitted by the Bakst Intervenors, unfiled, and we will take no further action on them in this matter.
