ORDER DENYING PETITION

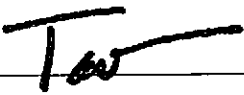

This original petition for a writ of mandamus seeks an order directing petitioner's sentence to be adjusted to provide petitioner with additional statutory credits under NRS 209.4465(7)(b). We conclude this court's intervention by way of an extraordinary writ is not warranted because petitioner has a plain, speedy, and adequate remedy for challenging the application of credit to his sentence. NRS 34.160; NRS 34.170. Specifically, a postconviction petition filed in the district court for the county in which the petitioner is incarcerated "is the only remedy available to an incarcerated person to challenge the computation of time that the person has served pursuant to a judgment of conviction." NRS 34.724(2)(c); see NRS 34.738(1). Accordingly, without considering the merit of the claim raised, we

17-901697

ORDER the petition DENIED.¹
