CHIEF DEPUTY CLERK

ORDER OF AFFIRMANCE

Glenn Miller Doolin appeals from a district court order denying the motion for modification of sentence he filed on January 30, 2015.¹ Eighth Judicial District Court, Clark County; Kathleen E. Delaney, Judge.

In his motion, Doolin claimed the district court should modify his sentence because he is a drug addict, he should have been sentenced to drug court or a drug rehabilitation program, defense counsel was ineffective for failing to inform him of the possibility of a habitual criminal adjudication, and his guilty plea was invalid because he was not informed of the possibility of habitual criminal adjudication. Doolin's claims fell outside the narrow scope of claims permissible in a motion for modification of sentence. See Edwards v. State, 112 Nev. 704, 708, 918 P.2d 321, 324

¹This appeal has been submitted for decision without oral argument. NRAP 34(f)(3).

(1996). Therefore, without considering the merits of any of Doolin's claims, we conclude the district court did not err by denying his motion, and we

ORDER the judgment of the district court AFFIRMED.
