Appellant,

vs.

THE STATE OF NEVADA,

Respondent.

ORDER DISMISSING APPEAL

This is a proper person appeal from an amended judgment of conviction. Our review of this appeal indicates that the district court entered the amended judgment of conviction on December 10, 1998. Appellant did not file the notice of appeal, however, until August 14, 2000, well after the expiration of the thirty-day appeal period prescribed by NRAP 4(b). An untimely notice of appeal fails to vest jurisdiction in this court. See Lozada v. State, 110 Nev. 349, 871 P.2d 944 (1994). Accordingly, we conclude that we lack jurisdiction to consider this appeal, and we

ORDER this appeal dismissed.¹

¹We note that in his notice of appeal appellant appears to argue that his appeal is timely filed because the amended judgment of conviction was "unsigned and undated." Appellant is in error. This court is in receipt of a certified copy of the amended judgment of conviction, which is signed, dated and file-stamped.
