ALBERT ALMOND,

Appellant,

vs.

THE STATE OF NEVADA,

Respondent.

No. 36628

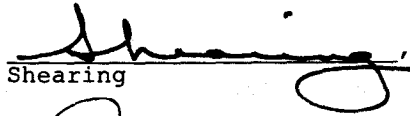

ORDER DISMISSING APPEALS

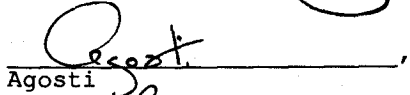

These are proper person appeals from an order of the district court denying appellant's "motion/request for review of probation revocation proceedings." Appellant in essence sought reconsideration of the district court's decision to revoke his probation in district court case no. CR97-1905A and the district court's order denying his motion to vacate/motion to modify sentence. Our review of these appeals reveals a jurisdictional defect. The right to appeal is statutory; where no statute or court rule provides for an appeal, no right to appeal exists. See Castillo v. State, 106 Nev. 349, 792 P.2d 1133 (1990). No statute or court rule provides for an appeal from an order of the district court denying a motion for reconsideration or "motion/request for review of probation revocation proceedings."

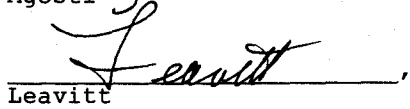

See Phelps v. State, 111 Nev. 1021, 900 P.2d 344 (1995).

Accordingly, we

ORDER these appeals dismissed.<sup>1</sup>
