ORDER DENYING PETITION

This original petition for a writ of mandamus and/or probation seeks an order directing the district court clerk to send petitioner Justin Odell Langford his case number for his family court case that was initiated in 2014 and the total page count and cost for obtaining a copy of the record for that case. We conclude Langford has failed to demonstrate our intervention by way of extraordinary writ is warranted at this time. See Pan v. Eighth Judicial Dist. Court, 120 Nev. 222, 228, 88 P.3d 840, 844 (2004) ("Petitioner[] carr[ies] the burden of demonstrating that extraordinary relief is warranted."). Specifically, it appears Langford has a plain, speedy, and adequate remedy, see NRS 34.170; NRS 34.330, because he can request the information he is seeking from the district court clerk in the first instance. Langford has not provided this court with any documentation demonstrating he previously sought this information from the district court and the district court has refused to provide him with this information. Accordingly, without deciding upon the merits of any claims raised, we

ORDER the petition DENIED.
