CLERK OF SUPREME COURT

Respondent.

ORDER DISMISSING APPEAL

This is a proper person appeal from an order granting partial summary judgment. The district court's order granted summary judgment in favor of respondent on appellant's claim for punitive damages; however, appellant's claims for negligence and products liability remain pending in the district court. On August 31, 2000, respondent filed a motion to dismiss this appeal for lack of jurisdiction. On September 11, 2000, appellant submitted a document entitled "Withdrawal of Notice of Appeal."

An order granting partial summary judgment is not an appealable final judgment, because it does not dispose of all claims as to all parties. See Lee v. GNLV Corp., 116 Nev. ___, 996 P.2d 416(2000); Rae v. All American Life & Cas. Co., 95 Nev. 920, 605 P.2d 196 (1979); NRAP 3A(b)(1). Here, several claims remain pending in the district court. Accordingly, respondent's motion to dismiss is granted, and we

ORDER this appeal dismissed.¹
