ORDER OF AFFIRMANCE

Warden Isidro Baca appeals from an order of the district court granting a postconviction petition for a writ of habeas corpus. First Judicial District Court, Carson City; James E. Wilson, Judge.

Baca argues the district court erred by granting Ronald Mark Jayne, Jr.'s November 18, 2016, petition. In his petition, Jayne challenged the computation of time served, arguing he was entitled to have his statutory credits applied toward his minimum terms under NRS 209.4465(7)(b). The record before this court demonstrates Jayne is serving terms for category B felonies committed on or between July 17, 1997 and June 30, 2007.¹ Therefore, in light of the Nevada Supreme Court's recent ¹The record demonstrates Jayne is serving terms for eight counts of driving under the influence of intoxicating liquor causing death or substantial bodily harm, category B felonies. See 2005 Nev. Stat., ch. 63, § 16, at 144-45 (former NRS 484C.430(1)(f)).

decision in Williams v. State Department of Corrections, 133 Nev. ___, 402 P.3d 1260 (2017), we conclude the district court did not err by granting the petition. Accordingly, we
