ORDER OF AFFIRMANCE

Phillip Stott appeals from an order of the district court denying a motion for modification of sentence.¹ Second Judicial District Court, Washoe County; Egan K. Walker, Judge.

Stott argues the district court erred by denying his October 12, 2017, motion. In his motion, Stott acknowledged that he had 14 prior felony convictions when he was sentenced in 2010, but asserted that he should receive a new sentencing hearing because 11 of those convictions have recently been reduced to misdemeanors. Stott did not allege the sentencing court relied on mistaken assumptions regarding his criminal record that worked to his extreme detriment and, therefore, his claim fell outside the narrow scope of claims permissible in a motion for modification of sentence. See Edwards v. State, 112 Nev. 704, 708, 918 P.2d 321, 324 (1996). Accordingly, without considering the merits of any of the claims raised in
