ORDER DISMISSING APPEAL

This is an appeal from a decree of divorce. Eighth Judicial District Court, Family Court Division, Clark County; Rena G. Hughes, Judge.

On September 10, 2018, we entered an order directing appellant to file and serve a fast track statement by October 22, 2018.¹ We cautioned that failure to file the fast track statement by the deadline could result in the dismissal of this appeal.

Appellant did not file the fast track statement or otherwise communicate with this court. Accordingly, on November 9, 2018, we entered an order directing appellant to file and serve the fast track statement by November 20, 2018.² We again cautioned that failure to comply could result in the dismissal of this appeal. To date, appellant has failed to file the fast track statement. Although appellant called the clerk of this court on November 30, 2018, and indicated that she would be filing

ORDER REINSTATING BRIEFING

On June 8, 2018, we entered an order granting appellant's counsel's motion to withdraw. We directed appellant, by July 9, 2018, to either (1) retain new counsel and cause new counsel to file a notice of appearance in this court, or (2) inform this court, in writing, that she will not be retaining new counsel and will be proceeding in pro se. Our order stated that if appellant failed to comply, the appeal would proceed with appellant in pro se. To date, no new counsel has filed a notice of appearance and appellant has not responded to our order. Accordingly, this appeal shall proceed with appellant in pro se.

Appellant shall have 11 days from the date of this order to file and serve a transcript request form or a certificate that no transcripts are being requested. See NRAP 9. Appellant shall have 20 days from the date of this order to file a docketing statement in compliance with NRAP 14. Appellant shall have 40 days from the date of this order to file and serve a fast track statement that complies with NRAP 3E. No appendix may be filed. NRAP 3E(d)(5). The clerk shall provide appellant with a blank
