ORDER OF AFFIRMANCE

Roger William Hull appeals from an order of the district court denying a motion to correct an illegal sentence.¹ Second Judicial District Court, Washoe County; Kathleen M. Drakulich, Judge.

In his motion filed on February 14, 2018, Hull claimed his convictions for lewdness with a child under the age of 14 and sexual assault were impermissibly redundant. Hull's claim fell outside the narrow scope of claims permissible in a motion to correct an illegal sentence. See Edwards v. State, 112 Nev. 704, 708, 918 P.2d 321, 324 (1996). Therefore, ¹This appeal has been submitted for decision without oral argument. NRAP 34(f)(3).

without considering the merits of Hull's claim, we conclude the district court did not err by denying the motion.² Accordingly, we

ORDER the judgment of the district court AFFIRMED.

²As an independent ground for affirming the district court's decision to deny relief, the record demonstrated the dual convictions were proper because Hull committed separate and distinct acts when sexually abusing the victim. See Gaxiola v. State, 121 Nev. 638, 651-52, 119 P.3d 1225, 1234-35 (2005).
