ORDER DENYING PETITION FOR WRIT OF PROHIBITION

This pro se, emergency petition for a writ of prohibition challenges various aspects of the processes leading to petitioner's incarceration. In summary, petitioner alleges that the justice court lacked jurisdiction to act because the State failed to timely present a proper charging instrument, that fraud was committed upon the courts throughout the processes, and that this and his innocence warrant issuance of a writ of prohibition. Petitioner asks that the jury verdict be set aside, that the case be dismissed, and that he be unconditionally released from custody.

Having considered the petition and supporting documents, we are not persuaded that our extraordinary and discretionary intervention is warranted. Pan v. Eighth Judicial Dist. Court, 120 Nev. 222, 228, 88 P.3d
