ORDER DENYING PETITION

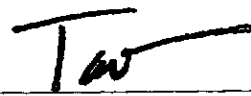

This original petition and amended petition for a writ of mandamus or prohibition challenges a district court order granting the State's pretrial motion for discovery pursuant to NRS 174.245 and directing Justin Chanse Rider to disclose DHS/CPS records from Oregon. Because Rider can challenge the district court's decision on appeal in the event he is convicted, see NRS 177.015(3); NRS 177.045, he has a plain, speedy, and adequate remedy at law and, therefore, this court's intervention by way of an extraordinary writ is not warranted, see NRS 34.170; NRS 34.330. Rider has not demonstrated any circumstances revealing urgency or strong necessity for this court to intervene even though there is an alternative remedy available. Cf. Salaiscooper v. Eighth Judicial Dist. Court, 117 Nev. 892, 901-02, 34 P.3d 509, 515-16 (2001) (concluding that review through writ petition was warranted even though there was an alternative remedy where there were 56 similar cases with the same issues pending in lower courts and petition presented issue of great statewide importance).

Therefore, without reaching the merit of the claim raised, we

ORDER the petition DENIED.
