ORDER DISMISSING APPEAL

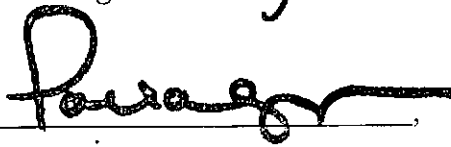

This is a pro se appeal from a post divorce-decree decision of the district court rendered on November 30, 2018. Eighth Judicial District Court, Family Court Division, Clark County; Denise L. Gentile, Judge.

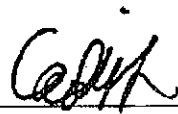

Review of the notice of appeal reveals jurisdictional defects. No written order was entered on November 30, 2018. The district court minutes indicate that on November 30, 2018, the district court orally denied appellant's "Motion to Stay Proceedings for Enlargement of Record," granted in part his motion for transcripts at state expense, and denied his motion to transport inmate. No statute or court rule authorizes an appeal from such rulings. See Brown v. MHC Stagecoach, LLC, 129 Nev. 343, 345, 301 P.3d 850, 851 (2013) (this court "may only consider appeals authorized by statute or court rule"). Moreover, to the extent any portions of the oral order are not solely administrative in nature, the district court's oral order is of no effect and cannot be appealed. Div. of Child and Family Servs. v. Eighth Judicial Dist. Court, 120 Nev. 445, 454, 92 P.3d 1239, 1245 (2004) (holding "that dispositional court orders that are not administrative in nature, but deal with the procedural posture or merits of the underlying controversy, must be written, signed, and filed before they become effective"). To date, it does not appear that the district court has entered a written order regarding this ruling. Accordingly, this court lacks jurisdiction and ORDERS this appeal DISMISSED.
