ORDER DISMISSING APPEAL

This is an appeal from a district court order entering judgment against appellants and in favor of respondents Adam J. Breeden, Esq. and Breeden & Associates, PLLC (Breeden) on Breeden's claim for adjudication of an attorney lien and claim for fees and costs. Eighth Judicial District Court, Clark County; Richard Scotti, Judge.

This court previously entered an order denying a motion to dismiss this appeal as untimely. The order explained that appellants filed a notice of appeal, and not an original petition for an extraordinary writ as contended by appellants. This court specifically instructed that if appellants wished to dismiss this appeal and proceed via an original writ petition, they must file a motion to dismiss this appeal and file a separate writ petition in accordance with NRAP 21.

Appellants have now filed a motion asking that this court recharacterize this appeal as a petition for a writ of mandamus. Alternatively, appellants seek to withdraw the appeal and file a petition for writ of mandamus within 14 days of the date the order dismissing the appeal is entered.

This court declines to recharacterize this appeal as a petition for a writ of mandamus. The alternative motion to dismiss this appeal is granted.¹ This appeal is dismissed. Appellants may file a writ petition if deemed warranted. Counsel for appellants is encouraged to review the requirements of NRAP 21 prior to making any such filing.

It is so ORDERED.
