ORDER DENYING PETITION

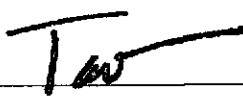

This original petition for a writ of mandamus and/or prohibition appears to challenge the district court's denial of petitioner's request for audio/visual recordings. Petitioner appears to request this court to order the district court to grant his motion for audio/visual recordings. Petitioner asserts the audio/visual recordings are necessary because the transcripts he received of the lower court proceedings do not accurately reflect what occurred at those proceedings. He contends he cannot pursue postconviction relief without having a full and accurate record.¹

¹We note the transcripts of the proceedings, rather than the audio/visual recordings, are part of the official record for the district court proceedings. See generally, NRAP 10(a).

We have considered the petition on file herein, and we are not satisfied this court's intervention by way of extraordinary writ is warranted at this time. See NRS 34.160; NRS 34.170; NRS 34.320; NRS 34.330. Accordingly, without deciding upon the merits of any claims raised therein, we deny the petition. See NRAP 21(b); Pan v. Eighth Judicial Dist. Court, 120 Nev. 222, 228, 88 P.3d 840, 844 (2004) ("Petitioner[] carr[ies] the burden of demonstrating that extraordinary relief is warranted."). Accordingly, we

ORDER the petition DENIED.
