CHIEF DEPUTY CLERK

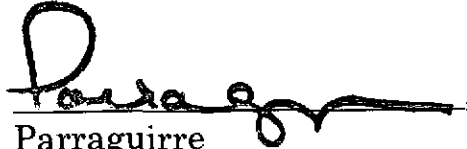

ORDER DENYING PETITION

This is a pro se petition for a writ of mandamus or a writ of prohibition. Petitioner asks this court to order the clerk of the district court to file his motion to correct an illegal sentence. Having considered the documents submitted in this matter, we conclude that petitioner has not demonstrated that our intervention by extraordinary writ relief is warranted.¹ See Pan v. Eighth Judicial Dist. Court, 120 Nev. 222, 228, 88 P.3d 840, 844 (2004) (“Petitioners carry the burden of demonstrating that ¹Petitioner acknowledges that he has been declared a vexatious litigant by the district court and is thus restricted in his filing privileges, yet he fails to provide this court with the vexatious litigant order. Furthermore, he fails to provide any documents showing that the clerk of the district court refused to file his motion to correct an illegal sentence.
