DEPUTY CLERK

ORDER DISMISSING PETITION FOR WRIT OF MANDAMUS

After petitioner requested that this matter be held in abeyance pending the parties' settlement negotiations, this court entered an order on October 9, 2019, indicating that the court would refrain from entering a disposition for 60 days from the date of the order. We further directed petitioner to file a report within that time to inform this court of the status of the parties' negotiations and to request that the period of abeyance be extended or that the court proceed to disposition of this matter. Petitioner has now filed a notice of settlement in which it indicates that the parties reached a settlement and requests that this matter be dismissed. We construe this document as a motion for voluntary dismissal and, cause appearing, the motion is granted and the petition is dismissed. NRAP 42(b).

The parties shall bear their own attorney fees and costs.

It is so ORDERED.
