ORDER DENYING PETITION

In this original petition for a writ of mandamus, Blake Lawrence Anderson seeks an order directing the district court to set aside his judgment of conviction and dismiss his case with prejudice.¹ Anderson asserts the district court lacked jurisdiction when it proceeded with his trial because he had an appeal pending in the Nevada Supreme Court at that time.

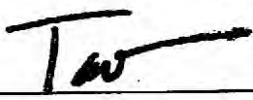

This is the third original petition seeking extraordinary relief Anderson has filed with this court raising the same issue. See Anderson v. Eighth Judicial Dist. Ct., Docket No. 76907-COA (Order Denying Petition, January 31, 2019); Anderson v. Eighth Judicial Dist. Ct., Docket No. 76656-COA (Order Denying Petition, January 31, 2019). As we previously stated, ¹We grant Anderson's motion for leave to file a memorandum of points and authorities in support of his petition and we have considered the memorandum when resolving this matter.

Anderson's claim lacks merit. Accordingly, we once again conclude this court's intervention by way of extraordinary writ is not warranted, see NRS 34.160, and we

ORDER the petition DENIED.²
