ORDER OF AFFIRMANCE

Jess Marlow appeals from an order of the district court denying a motion to modify or correct an illegal sentence. Second Judicial District Court, Washoe County; Egan K. Walker, Judge.

In his motion filed on June 4, 2018, Marlow claimed that the presentence investigation report (PSI) contained inaccurate information concerning his criminal record. The district court reviewed Marlow's motion and found that Marlow did not provide sufficient explanation concerning any alleged errors or how those alleged errors worked to his extreme detriment. Because Marlow failed to allege specific facts to support his claim, the district court found Marlow failed to demonstrate the sentencing court relied on mistaken assumptions regarding his criminal record that worked to his extreme detriment. See Edwards v. State, 112 Nev. 704, 708, 918 P.2d 321, 324 (1996). The district court also found Marlow failed to demonstrate that his sentence was facially illegal or the sentencing court lacked jurisdiction. See id. The record supports the district court's findings.

Therefore, we conclude the district court did not err by denying Marlow's motion. Accordingly, we

ORDER the judgment of the district court AFFIRMED.
