ORDER OF AFFIRMANCE

ARNS Fund, LLC (ARNS), appeals from a district court order granting a motion for summary judgment in a quiet title action. Eighth Judicial District Court, Clark County; Ronald J. Israel, Judge.

The original owner of the subject property failed to make periodic payments to her homeowners' association (HOA). The HOA recorded a notice of delinquent assessment lien and later a notice of default and election to sell to collect on the past due assessments and other fees pursuant to NRS Chapter 116. Prior to the sale, respondent Bank of America, N.A. (BOA)—both the current and a former holder of the first deed of trust on the property—tendered payment to the HOA foreclosure agent in an amount exceeding nine months of past due assessments, but the agent rejected the tender and proceeded with its foreclosure sale, at which a predecessor to ARNS purchased the property. Ultimately, ARNS's predecessor initiated the underlying action seeking to quiet title, and BOA's predecessor counterclaimed seeking the same. ARNS and BOA were substituted into the action, and BOA moved for summary judgment, which the district court granted, finding that the tender extinguished the superpriority portion of the HOA's lien such that ARNS took title to the property subject to BOA's deed of trust. This appeal followed.

This court reviews a district court's order granting summary judgment de novo. Wood v. Safeway, Inc., 121 Nev. 724, 729, 121 P.3d 1026, 1029 (2005). Summary judgment is proper if the pleadings and all other evidence on file demonstrate that no genuine issue of material fact exists and that the moving party is entitled to judgment as a matter of law. Id. When deciding a summary judgment motion, all evidence must be viewed in a light most favorable to the nonmoving party. Id. General allegations and conclusory statements do not create genuine issues of fact. Id. at 731, 121 P.3d at 1030-31.

Here, the district court correctly found that BOA's tender of an amount exceeding nine months of past due assessments satisfied the superpriority lien such that ARNS took the property subject to BOA's deed of trust. See Bank of Am., N.A. v. SFR Invs. Pool 1, LLC, 134 Nev. 604, 605, 427 P.3d 113, 116 (2018). ARNS's only argument on appeal with respect to the tender is that the letter accompanying the check contained impermissible conditions because it supposedly misstated the law regarding maintenance or nuisance abatement charges. But the letter did not address such charges at all, and there is no indication that they were part of the HOA's lien in this case. Cf. id. at 607-08, 427 P.3d at 118 (concluding that a materially similar tender letter was not impermissibly conditional and noting that "the HOA did not indicate that the property had any charges for maintenance or nuisance abatement"). Accordingly, we conclude that no genuine issue of material fact exists to prevent summary judgment in favor of BOA, see Wood, 121 Nev. at 729, 121 P.3d at 1029, and we
