CLERK OF SUPREME COURT

DEPUTY CLERK

ORDER DISMISSING APPEAL

This is an appeal from January 31 and March 11, 2020, post-divorce-decree orders. Appellant has filed a motion seeking to voluntarily dismiss this appeal, explaining that he has already filed a notice of appeal from the January 31 order, which is docketed under Docket No. 80755-COA, and he merely filed an amended notice of appeal to identify the March 11 order for jurisdictional purposes, not intending to commence an entirely different appeal. Appellant's motion is granted, and this appeal is dismissed.¹ The parties shall bear their own fees and costs. NRAP 42(b).

It is so ORDERED.

Mindee Faught Bennett
Eighth District Court Clerk

¹The March 11, 2020, order, does not appear independently appealable, as it solely concerns contempt. See Vaile v. Vaile, 133 Nev. 213, 217, 396 P.3d 791, 794 (2017). In light of this order, appellant's motion to consolidate the two appeals is denied.
