Journal Entry Details:

Defendants' presence WAIVED. James Ruggeroi, Esq., counsel for co-defendant, Ylexia McCoy, also present. Court noted this matter was previously continued to allow defense counsel to begin its review of video surveillance material. Mr. Altig indicated that his investigator has begun that review on behalf of both defendants; and requested additional time to have the investigator and defense counsel to discuss via telephone or in chambers to establish a budget as there are over 2,000 hours of video produced; preliminary approval of $2,500.00 and the Court approved $5,000.00, i.e., 150 hours of review. Mr. Altig further advised that his investigator would need an additional 180 hours just to get through the amount of surveillance video that supports the search warrants. Court indicated such conference will need to take place prior to September 19, 2016, due to the Court's current trial schedule. As this is regarding the defense investigation costs, it does not appear that the State need be present. Court DIRECTED counsel to provide notice to the State when the conference is scheduled and if the State disagrees, they can notify the Court accordingly. The Court indicated it will keep the conference to the matter at hand and not have it exceed any discussion other than what the County is going to pay for so there can be effective assistance of counsel. PARTIES

PRESENT: Jones, Jr., John T. Attorney
State of Nevada Plaintiff

JOURNAL ENTRIES

- Deft. not present, in Nevada Dept. of Corrections.

Mr. Jones stated his appellate unit reviewed this matter, and determined a response would not be forthcoming, as it would be treating this as a notice of an appeal of the prior court's order, instead of a new motion. COURT ADVISED, that was its reading of this, and it was inclined to DENY this motion as it was improperly filed, but RECOGNIZE it as a NOTICE OF APPEAL. Mr. Jones stated he would prepare an order for the Court's review.
