ELIZABETH A. BROWN
CLERK OF SUPREME COURT
BY S. Young
DEPUTY CLERK

ORDER DISMISSING APPEAL

This is a pro se appeal from a purported district court order denying a “petition in civil rights violations of NRS 658 title I, II, and III”. Eighth Judicial District Court, Clark County; Adriana Escobar, Judge.

A review of the district court docket and minute entries does not indicate that a petition in civil rights violations was filed in the underlying case. The district court did grant a motion to dismiss appellant’s amended complaint at a hearing held on January 21, 2021. However, it appears that the district court has not entered a final written order dismissing appellant’s complaint, and thus, no final judgment has been entered. To the extent that appellant’s appeal is from the district court’s order granting a motion to dismiss, the appeal is premature. See NRAP 4(a)(1); Rust v. Clark Cty. School District, 103 Nev. 686, 747 P.2d 1380

(1987) (explaining that the district court's oral pronouncement from the bench, the clerk's minute order, and even an unfiled written order cannot be appealed). Accordingly, we conclude that we lack jurisdiction to consider this appeal,<sup>1</sup> and we

ORDER this appeal DISMISSED.
