ORDER DISMISSING APPEAL

This is a direct appeal from a judgment of conviction. Eighth Judicial District Court, Clark County; Crystal Eller, Judge.

When our preliminary review of the docketing statement and the NRAP 3(g) documents revealed a potential jurisdictional defect, we directed appellant to show cause why this appeal should not be dismissed for lack of jurisdiction. Specifically it appears that the judgment of conviction challenged on appeal was previously appealed in Docket No. 76447, McCoy (Leroy) v. State (Order of Affirmance, October 31, 2019). A second duplicate appeal may not be pursued.

In his response to the order to show cause, counsel for appellant informs this court that appellant, acting pro se, filed a copy of the notice of appeal previously filed in Docket No. 76447, that his office withdrew from representation of appellant on March 11, 2020, and that he is not aware of any reason why this notice of appeal should not be dismissed¹.

¹Counsel for appellant, Kedric Bassett, has filed a motion to withdraw as counsel for appellant. The motion is granted.

Accordingly, as it appears that we lack jurisdiction over this appeal, we

ORDER this appeal DISMISSED.
