No. 37751

ORDER DENYING PETITIONS

Docket No. 37750 is an original petition for a writ of mandamus or prohibition, challenging the district court's order denying petitioner's motion in limine to admit evidence of the victim's character and specific acts by the victim. Docket No. 37751 is an original petition for a writ of mandamus or prohibition, challenging the district court's order granting the real party in interest's motion to admit evidence of prior bad acts by petitioner. We elect to consolidate these petitions for disposition.¹

We have considered the petitions on file herein, and we are not satisfied that this court's intervention by way of extraordinary writ is warranted at this time.² We entertain some concerns with the district court's preliminary evidentiary ruling on the admissibility of the defendant's prior bad acts in the State's case-in-chief. Nonetheless, we are not persuaded that the district court exceeded its jurisdiction or manifestly abused its discretion so as to warrant extraordinary relief. Moreover, we conclude that the right to appeal any adverse final judgment of the district court will provide petitioner with a plain, speedy and adequate remedy for any prejudicial error which might occur at trial, and that any appeal will provide this court with a complete record upon which to review the issues presented.³ Accordingly, we

ORDER the petitions DENIED.⁴

⁴Cause appearing, we grant petitioner's motion to file a reply to the State's opposition to petitioner's emergency motions for a stay of the district court proceedings, and we direct the clerk of this court to file the reply provisionally submitted on April 25, 2001. Furthermore, we deny petitioner's emergency motions for a stay of the district court proceedings.
