ORDER DISMISSING APPEAL

On August 31, 2001, the settlement judge filed a report indicating that the parties agreed to a settlement of this appeal and would be seeking a remand to the district court in accordance with the procedures for remand set forth in Huneycutt v. Huneycutt, 94 Nev. 79, 575 P.2d 585 (1978). As of February 11, 2002, however, the parties had failed to file a motion for remand or otherwise inform this court of the status of this appeal. Accordingly, we entered an order directing appellant to file in this court, within 30 days, a motion for remand along with a copy of an order of the district court certifying, under Huneycutt, that it is inclined to grant the parties' requested relief. Alternatively, we directed appellant to inform this court in writing if he is unable to obtain Huneycutt certification. We further cautioned that failure to comply with the order may result in the dismissal of this appeal as abandoned.

To date, appellant has not complied with or otherwise responded to our order. Accordingly, cause appearing, we dismiss this appeal as abandoned.

It is so ORDERED.
