ELIZABETH A. BROWN
CLERK OF THE SUPREME COURT

ORDER DISMISSING APPEAL

This is an appeal from findings of fact, conclusions of law, and summary judgment. Eighth Judicial District Court, Clark County; Jasmin D. Lilly-Spells, Judge.

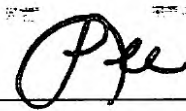

On November 1, 2022, this court entered an order acknowledging that the parties had informed this court they had reached a settlement and directing the parties, within 30 days, to file either a stipulation or motion to dismiss or the opening brief and appendix. This court cautioned that failure to comply timely with its order could result in the dismissal of this appeal. When the parties failed to comply, this court entered another order on December 20, 2022, directing the parties to respond within 7 days. That order again cautioned that failure to comply could result in the dismissal of this appeal. To date, the parties have not responded and nothing has been filed in accordance with this court's orders; accordingly, this court concludes the parties have abandoned this appeal, and the court

ORDERS this appeal DISMISSED.
