ORDER DISMISSING APPEAL

This is an appeal from an order of the district court denying a motion in limine. Our review of this appeal revealed a potential jurisdictional defect. Specifically, the right to appeal is statutory; where no statute or court rule provides for an appeal, no right to appeal exists.¹ No statute or court rule provides for an appeal from an order denying a motion in limine.

Accordingly, on June 20, 2001, this court ordered counsel for appellant to show cause why this appeal should not be dismissed for lack of jurisdiction. Counsel for appellant has failed to respond to this court's order. We therefore conclude that we lack jurisdiction to entertain this appeal, and we

ORDER this appeal DISMISSED.
