IN THE SUPREME COURT OF THE STATE OF NEVADA

NAB LLC D/B/A NAB NAIL SALON D/B/A NAB NAIL BAR, A NEVADA LIMITED LIABILITY COMPANY; ASIA TRINH, AN INDIVIDUAL; AND NICOLE BROWN, AN INDIVIDUAL, Petitioners.

VS.

ACUITY MUTUAL INSURANCE COMPANY, A MUTUAL INSURANCE COMPANY; MARTIN WALSH, SECRETARY OF LABOR; UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF LABOR; AND DOBBERSTEIN LAW GROUP, Respondents. No. 87923

FILED

MAR 0 1 202

ORDER DENYING PETITION

This is an original pro se petition for a writ of certiorari seeking an order from this court directing the dismissal of multiple cases. Having reviewed the petition and amended petition, we are not persuaded that our extraordinary and discretionary intervention is warranted. Garcia v. Sixth Jud. Dist. Ct., 117 Nev. 697, 700, 30 P.3d 1110, 1112 (2001) (providing that a "writ of certiorari is an extraordinary remedy that lies entirely within the discretion of this court," and explaining that such relief "is appropriate only when an inferior tribunal has exceeded its jurisdiction and there is no plain, speedy and adequate remedy at law"); NRAP 21(a)(3)(D) (petition must state the facts necessary to understand the issues presented); NRAP

SUPREME COURT OF Nevada

(C) 1947A CONTROL

21(a)(4) (appendix must include documents necessary to understand the matter set forth in the petition); NRAP 21(c). Accordingly, we ORDER the petition DENIED.

Cadish C.J.

Stiglich, J.

Herndon, J.

cc: Asia Trinh NAB LLC

Nicole Brown

Acuity Mutual Insurance Company

Dobberstein Law Group

Martin Walsh

Bauman Loewe Witt & Maxwell, PLLC

Lewis Brisbois Bisgaard & Smith, LLP/Las Vegas

United States Department of Labor