ORDER OF AFFIRMANCE

Tavian Henderson appeals from a district court order denying a postconviction petition for a writ of habeas corpus challenging the computation of time served. Eighth Judicial District Court, Clark County; Erika D. Ballou, Judge.

In his August 30, 2023, petition, Henderson sought the application of statutory credits to his sentence. The district court found that Henderson failed to allege or prove that he had exhausted his administrative remedies before filing his petition. See NRS 34.724(1), (2)(c) (noting a postconviction petition for a writ of habeas corpus is the only remedy to challenge the computation of time served “after all available administrative remedies have been exhausted”). The district court’s finding is supported by the record. Accordingly, we conclude the district court did not err by denying the petition, and we

ORDER the judgment of the district court AFFIRMED.¹

¹Insofar as Henderson has raised other issues which are not specifically addressed in this order, we have considered the same and conclude that they do not present a basis for relief.
