DEPUTY CLERK

ORDER DISMISSING APPEAL

Appellant has filed a notice of appeal from “the order given on 10/10/2024 to which he was not afforded opportunity to be heard assumably dismissing his writ of habeas corpus disciplinary.” Eighth Judicial District Court, Clark County; Tina Talim, Judge.

This court’s review of the notice of appeal and documents before this court reveals a jurisdictional defect. Specifically, no order was issued on October 10, 2024, and the notice of appeal fails to identify any other decisions of the district court. See NRAP 3(c)(1)(B). It further appears, based on what is before us, that petitioner’s habeas petition remains pending below. To the extent, if any, appellant’s notice of appeal can be construed as challenging the district court’s November 19, 2024, oral order denying transcripts at state expense, no statute or court rule allows for an appeal from such a decision. See Castillo v. State, 106 Nev. 349, 352, 792 P.2d 1133, 1135 (1990) (explaining that this court has jurisdiction only when statute or court rule provides for appeal). This court lacks jurisdiction to consider this appeal, and thus we

ORDER this appeal DISMISSED.
