ORDER

These are proper person appeals from an order of the district court denying appellant's motion to correct an illegal sentence. Our review of the documents before this court indicates that appellant filed the motion on November 28, 2000. The district court entered a written order denying the motion on June 6, 2001. On June 28, 2001, appellant filed a notice of appeal from the June 6, 2001 order that was docketed in this court in Docket No. 38129. On August 17, 2001, appellant filed a second notice of appeal from the June 6, 2001 order that was docketed in this court in Docket No. 38360.¹ Thus, two separate cases were inadvertently opened in this court under Docket Nos. 38129 and 38360. Accordingly, we direct the clerk of this court to administratively close Docket No. 38360. The clerk of this court shall transfer to Docket No. 38129 all documents filed or received in Docket No. 38360. Appellant's appeal from the denial of his motion will proceed under Docket No. 38129. This order does not affect the portion of this court's July 24, 2001 order filed in Docket No. 38129 directing the clerk of the district court to transmit the trial court record within one hundred and twenty days.

¹In the notice of appeal in Docket No. 38360, appellant states that he is appealing from the July 25, 2001 decision denying his motion to correct an illegal sentence. The July 25, 2001 minutes state, "COURT REVIEWED MOTION TO CORRECT ILLEGAL SENTENCE AND FINDS THAT THERE WAS NOTHING ILLEGAL OR UNLAWFUL ABOUT THE SENTENCING AND THEREFORE, PREVIOUS ORDER DENYING MOTION STANDS." The district court's July 25, 2001 statement did nothing more than attempt to clear up appellant's obvious confusion relating to the denial of his November 28, 2000 motion. Because appellant's appeal from the June 6, 2001 order denying his motion is currently pending in this court in Docket No. 38129, appellant's second notice of appeal was duplicative and unnecessary.

It is so ORDERED.
