ORDER DISMISSING APPEAL

This is a pro se notice of appeal from a district court order purportedly denying an "Application for Writ of Habeas Corpus." Eighth Judicial District Court, Clark County; Carli Lynn Kierny, Judge.

This court's review of this appeal reveals a jurisdictional defect. Specifically, the appeal appears premature because no appealable order has been entered in the district court proceedings, and the proceedings on appellant's August 2025 postconviction petition for a writ of habeas corpus appear to be ongoing in the Eighth Judicial District Court. Appellant may appeal from a final judgment resolving all of his postconviction claims, if aggrieved. See NRS 34.575. Thus, the notice of appeal is premature, and this court

ORDERS this appeal DISMISSED.
