LISA RASMUSSEN N/K/A LISA
KRUPKA,

vs.
JOEL RASMUSSEN,
Respondent.

No. 90545

FILED

DEC 22 2025

ELIZABETH A. BROWN
CLERK OF SUPREME COURT
BY DEPUTY CLERK

ORDER RESOLVING MOTIONS, DISMISSING APPEAL, AND REMANDING TO THE DISTRICT COURT

On September 16, 2025, appellant filed a motion for conditional dismissal of this appeal requesting that the dismissal be without prejudice to reinstatement of the appeal in the event the district court declines to approve or enter the parties' proposed order resolving appeal, which incorporates the parties' fully executed settlement term sheet. On that same day respondent filed a motion to remand to the district court for clarification of the memorandum of understanding and entering a specific term order or, in the alternative, for a set-aside and continuing the appeal. Appellant opposes respondent's motion and requests this court to award appellant her reasonable attorney fees and costs incurred in opposing respondent's motion.

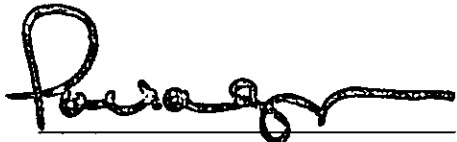

As respondent appears to acknowledge, any challenge to the settlement terms must be raised in the district court. Although it appears respondent may have filed a motion in the district court seeking clarification of the terms of the memorandum of understanding, respondent has not provided this court with anything that demonstrates the district court has indicated that it would grant respondent's motion or that the motion raises a substantial issue. See NRAP 12A (providing for a remand after an indicative ruling by the district court that it would grant relief). Accordingly, respondent's motion for a remand is denied. Appellant's request for the award of fees and costs for filing the opposition is also denied.

Appellant's motion for conditional dismissal of this appeal is granted and this appeal is dismissed. The parties shall bear their own costs and attorney fees.

This matter is remanded to the district court to conduct appropriate proceedings, if any, to alter, amend, or vacate its order or judgment as necessary for the parties to fulfill the terms of their settlement agreement. In the event the district court declines to grant the requested relief, appellant may file a motion to reinstate this appeal. Any such motion to reinstate the appeal must be filed within 30 days of entry of the district court's order denying relief.

It is so ORDERED.
