ORDER DISMISSING APPEAL

This is a pro se appeal from a district court final judgment. Eighth Judicial District Court, Clark County; Tina Talim, Judge.

On July 11, 2025, this court issued a notice directing appellants to, among other things, file and serve a transcript request form or certificate of no transcript request within 14 days, and the opening brief or informal brief within 120 days. When appellants failed to file the transcript request form or certificate of no transcript request, this court issued an order on September 10, 2025, directing appellants to file and serve a transcript request form or certificate of no transcript request by September 24, 2025. The order cautioned that failure to timely comply could result in the dismissal of this appeal. On September 19, 2025, appellants filed a transcript request form. However, on September 22, 2025, this court entered an order striking the transcript request form because it was deficient. The order directed appellants to correct the deficiencies and re-file a transcript request form that conformed with the rules within 14 days and cautioned that failure to comply would result in the dismissal of this appeal. On October 6, 2025, appellants re-filed the transcript request form, however, it was stricken as deficient, and appellants were ordered to file a transcript request form that conformed with the rules by October 10, 2025, and again appellants were cautioned that failure to comply would result in the dismissal of this appeal. On October 20, 2025, appellants attempted to file a corrected transcript request form. The transcript request form was still deficient and was stricken by order of this court entered on October 28, 2025. The order directed appellants to correct the deficiencies and re-file a corrected transcript request form that conformed with the rules by November 4, 2025, and again cautioned appellants that failure to comply would result in the dismissal of this appeal. To date, appellants have not filed a transcript request form. Appellants have also failed to file the opening brief or informal brief, which was due on November 10, 2025. Because it appears that appellants have abandoned this appeal, we

ORDER this appeal DISMISSED.
