ORDER DISMISSING APPEAL

This is a pro se appeal from an oral district court order accepting an annual risk assessment report and directing that appellant remain in a forensic facility. Eighth Judicial District Court, Clark County; Christy L. Craig, Judge.

Review of the notice of appeal and documents before this court reveals a jurisdictional defect. The district court's oral order is not appealable. See Div. of Child & Family Servs. v. Eighth Judicial Dist. Court, 120 Nev. 445, 454, 92 P.3d 1239, 1245 (2004) (“[D]ispositional court orders that are not administrative in nature, but deal with the procedural posture or merits of the underlying controversy, must be written, signed, and filed before they become effective.”). Moreover, this court “may only consider appeals authorized by statute or court rule.” Brown v. MHC Stagecoach, LLC, 129 Nev. 343, 345, 301 P.3d 850, 851 (2013). No statute or court rule authorizes an appeal from an order accepting an annual risk assessment report and directing that a person remain in a forensic facility. Accordingly, we lack jurisdiction and
