ORDER DENYING PROPER PERSON PETITION
FOR WRIT OF MANDAMUS

This is an original proper person petition for a writ of mandamus challenging a number of interlocutory determinations made by the district court after our June 11, 2001 reversal of a final judgment in Docket No. 29305, and remand of the underlying lawsuit. We have considered this petition, and we are not satisfied that this court's intervention by way of extraordinary relief is warranted at this time.¹ Accordingly, we

ORDER the petition DENIED.²

¹The clerk of this court shall amend the caption on this court's docket to conform to the caption on this order.

²See NRAP 21(b); Smith v. District Court, 107 Nev. 674, 818 P.2d 849 (1997).

Petitioner's failure to submit proof of service of the writ petition on the respondent district judges constitutes an independent ground upon which we could deny the writ petition. NRAP 21(a).

Although petitioner was not granted leave to file papers in proper person, see NRAP 46(b), we have considered all proper person documents filed or received in this matter, and we conclude that the relief requested therein is not warranted.
