ORDER OF REVERSAL AND REMAND

Shannon Carter appeals from a district court order denying a postconviction petition for a writ of habeas corpus filed on August 20, 2024. Eighth Judicial District Court, Clark County; Michael Villani, Senior Judge.

Carter filed his petition in the Second Judicial District Court, where he was convicted, and argued the State breached the plea agreements as demonstrated by the fact that his statutory credits were not applied correctly to his minimum parole eligibility dates. He argued the incorrect application of statutory credits led to him serving more time before parole eligibility than contemplated by the parties. He requested that he either be resentenced or be allowed to withdraw his guilty pleas. Based on a motion filed by the State, the district court determined Carter's petition challenged the computation of time served rather than his judgment of conviction or sentence. Pursuant to NRS 34.738(1)(a), (2)(b), the district court ordered the petition be transferred to the Eighth Judicial District Court, where Carter was imprisoned. The postconviction habeas petition was transferred to and denied by the Eighth Judicial District Court because Carter failed to demonstrate an error regarding the computation of time served for his sentences.

We conclude Carter's petition challenged his judgment of conviction and sentence rather than the computation of time served. Therefore, the Second Judicial District Court erred by transferring the petition to the Eighth Judicial District Court. See NRS 34.738(1), (2)(b). Thus, we reverse the order of the district court denying the postconviction petition and remand for the postconviction habeas petition to be transferred back to the Second Judicial District Court. Accordingly, we

ORDER the judgment of the district court REVERSED AND REMAND this matter to the district court for proceedings consistent with this order.
