ORDER DENYING PETITION FOR WRIT OF MANDAMUS

This is a proper person petition for a writ of mandamus, which appears to challenge an order reassigning the underlying district court case from one district judge to another. The petition does not satisfy any of the procedural requirements for writ petitions: it is not supported by the affidavit of the party beneficially interested,<sup>1</sup> there is no proof of service of the petition on the respondent judge or the other parties to the district court action,<sup>2</sup> and no documentation whatsoever was submitted in support of the petition.<sup>3</sup> We are not persuaded that our intervention by way of extraordinary relief is warranted, and accordingly we

ORDER the petition DENIED.<sup>4</sup>
