ORDER DISMISSING APPEAL

This is a proper person appeal from a district court order dismissing appellant's complaint as to some, but not all, defendants. Our review of the documentation before us reveals a jurisdictional defect. Specifically, the order appealed from is not substantively appealable. It is not a final judgment,¹ as it did not dispose of all claims as to all parties,² it is not independently appealable,³ and it was not certified as final under NRCP 54(b). Accordingly, as we lack jurisdiction, we

ORDER this appeal DISMISSED.
